About The Game

You are a sorcerer commanding dark legions. Fools try to thwart you at every turn! Those do-gooders, rivals, and busybodies interfere with your wicked plans, but someday they'll see, oh yes . . .

Your only obstacle? The pitiable cretins who think themselves your equal! Other necromancers!

In this fast-paced card game, players build unstoppable skeleton armies or sacrifice minions to capture the Well of Eternal Life. They must navigate challenges from rival necromancers, and the battle for supremacy is both strategic and light-hearted, ensuring engaging gameplay every time.

Players must outwit the other necromancers at the table —those do-gooders, rivals, and busybodies who dare to oppose you. Whether you're a seasoned gamers or new to casual card games, Necromancer helps everyone dig up a few new friends along the way!
